Dear Bruce Wayne,

In reviewing your account, it has come to my attention that you have failed to make your payment which has become due and payable. As a result, after the grace period, a late charge has been added to your account balance. The total amount of the missed payment together with the late charge, prior missed payments and unpaid charges is DUE NOW.

The total amount owed is as follows

Prior Missed Payments		$ 0.00
Unpaid Charges		$ 0.00
Total	11/11/2007	$ 1,100.00

The amounts shown above do not include any amounts that have become due since the dates shown. In such a case, you may owe more than the amount indicated. If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact me right away.
